FEATURED FLIGHTS

Gamay Flight

This month's Beverage Focus features one of our favorite but often overlooked varieties that's wonderfully fresh, light, vibrant and perfect for the seasonal shift into Spring.

Jean Paul Brun 'FRV 100' 6/12/48

A fun little sparkling wine from the affable Jean-Paul Brun of Beaujolais. This sparkling rose is light and fruity with more than a touch of sweetness.

Cave St. Cyr - Beaujolais 4.5/9/36

Saint-Cyr is a family with roots in Beaujolais going back four generations. Their entry level Gamay is spot on with some raspberry and cranberry notes, spice and incredible freshness

Joel Delaunay 'la Vignette' 4.5/9/36

A lively Gamay from France's Loire Valley. Ruby red color, exuberant nose of fresh red fruits. Delicate and soft on the palate, bright fruit and spicy notes in this vibrant wine.

Field Recordings 'Martian Ranch Vineyard'

6/12/48

Andrew from Field Recordings is really hitting his stride and getting more and more nerdy along the way. This Gamay went through 100% carbonic maceration and shows bright cranberry and cherry fruits with lifted acidity and some new world style.

SPARKLING

BY THE GLASS

NV Cava Avinyo 'Brut' Macabeu, Parellada, Xarel.Lo

Penedes, Spain. Bright white fruits combined with toasty brioche notes makes this sparkler the perfect pairing for pretty much every cheese on the menu.

Valdobbiadene, Italy. Orange blossoms and nectarine on the nose. This easygoing Prosecco is soft on the palate with juicy yellow peach and apricot flavors.

NV Gouguenhiem rosé of Malbec

Mendoza, Argentina. The only logical thing to do when you're a winemaker that loves sparkling wine almost as much as Malbec is to make a sparkling Malbec! This version is delicate with cherries and strawberries leaping out of the glass.

CELLAR SELECTIONS

NV Champagne Laherte Frères 'Ultradition Brut' Pinot Meunier, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir

Champagne, France. Every night should start off with Champagne especially when its as expressive as this one. Flavors of freshly baked bread and orange blossom are followed by black raspberry, dried apricot and a touch of woody toast.

2015 Firelands Winery, Pinot Grigio

Isle St. George, Ohio. With bright and zesty fruit, this wine is light-bodied and crisp with a peachy tone to soften the zippy finish. This is not your grandmother's flabby, sweet Pinot Grigio!

2015 Nuevo Mundo, Sauvignon Blanc

Colchagua, Chile. Refreshingly crisp and vibrant with orange, lime and mango flavors. One of Chile's oldest organic wineries.

2014 Amizade, Godello

Monterrei, Spain. Bone dry with lively aromas of wild herbs followed by citrus and floral notes. Godellos like this one are quickly becoming benchmark Spanish white wines.

2014 Red Tail Ridge, Chardonnay

Finger Lakes, New York. This wine is full of floral aromatics as well as white peach and apricot. Less toasty than what you might find in a Chardonnay from the west coast with just a hint of butter.

2015 Acústic Celler 'Blanc', Garnatxa Blanca, Macabeu, Garnatxa Gris, Pansal

Montserrat, Spain. Dried lemon and apple skin aromas are complemented by notes of jasmine and chalk. A little bit of time in barrel adds some richness.

2014 Emile Beyer 'Tradicion', Pinot Gris

Alsace, France. Radiantly cheerful. Ripe, balanced and touched with a slight, sunny sweetness. The most versatile pairing.

CELLAR SELECTIONS

2014 Marcel Couturier 'Les Longues Terres', Chardonnay

7/14/56

Mâcon-Loché, France. This white Burgundy is rich and mineral driven. Pineapple and ripe yellow apple play alongside this wine's creamy texture to evoke a luscious, multilayered palate. Subtle wood influence and radiating minerality make this a standout Chardonnay.

Santa Rita Hills, California. Bountiful with apricot, dried white flowers and pear, this DRY riesling has an expressive minerality and is quite possibly one of the finest domestic Rieslings available. With only 48 cases produced, the Tatomer is not to be missed.

2014 Claude Riffault 'les Chailloux', Sauvignon Blanc

60

Sancerre, France. Sancerre produces some of the best Sauvignon Blancs in the world. This one is pure and mineral driven with citrus fruits, flint and palate cleansing acidity.

2012 Matthiasson 'Matthiasson Vineyard' Ribolla Gialla

90

Napa Valley, California. Jill and Steve Matthiasson have just 7 rows of Ribolla growing in their home vineyard that they got from the historic Vare Vineyard. The wine is unfiltered and incredibly distinctive with hazelnut, lemon curd, baking spice and stony minerality.

2014 Agnès and René Mosse 'Anjou', Chenin Blanc

60

Loire Valley, France. There's a tiny bit of residual sugar in this charming Chenin but don't let that scare you off. It also boasts plenty of acidity and a lovely hint of oxidative qualities that make the wine a perfect match for pretty much every cheese on the menu.

2013 Domaine Jean Collet '1er Cru - Montée de Tonnerre' Chardonnay

Chablis, France. Amazing depth and complexity with laser-like acidity and sea shell minerality - This opulent wine brings the thunder.

ROSÉ

BY THE GLASS

Half/Glass/Bottle
5/10/44

2015 Nondisclosure, Rosé of Grenache

Santa Barbara County, California. This Pastoral exclusive comes from our friend Curt Schalchlin of Sans Liege. He says, "a buddy kinda ran out of funds and couldn't bottle it under his own label, even though it was meant for a much more expensive offering." So we scored. It's all SBC fruit and its chock full of watermelon and strawberry fruits and fabulously refreshing.

65

2013 Acoustic Celler 'Ritme', Cariñena, Garnacha

California. Expressive aromas of raspberry and kirsch followed by dried herb and wet stone with a mouthwatering level of acidity and a soft, easy to enjoy finish

DIGESTIF

Letherbee 'Fernet' 10
A very palatable fernet that leans heavily on the saffron.

Barrel-aged red wine with botanicals makes this the perfect dessert sipper.

Mauro Vergano 'Americano' 12
A twist on a classic Vermouth using high quality Grignolino grapes as a base then infusing it with wormwood, gentian and bitter orange zest. Think Carpano Antica meets Fernet Branca.

Meletti 'Limoncello' 8
Unmistakably bold with balanced sweetness and authentic lemon-peel acidity.
